

Kathleen M. Strobele

Senior Accounting Services Specialist

kstrobele@LumsdenCPA.com

Kathy joined Lumsden McCormick in the audit department as a senior accounting services specialist performing client accounting services to include bookkeeping and transactional processing and financial statement and tax preparation. She brings with her payroll and bookkeeping experience with various types of industries and accounting software from her previous work in private companies.

EDUCATION

Daemen College, Bachelor of Science in Accounting, Certificate in Forensic Accounting, Magna Cum Laude
Erie Community College, Associate in Business Administration

PROFESSIONAL

Computerized Bookkeeping Certification, Northeast Institute
Rockhurst University

- Human Resources and the Law Certificate
- Human Resources Essentials Certificate

NYS Office of State Comptroller

- Municipal Bookkeeping Certificate
- Accounting Principles and Procedures Certificate

NYS Retirement System

- Retirement Reporting Certificate
- Employer Benefit Seminar

National Notary Association, Notary Public

QuickBooks Online, Certified Pro-Advisor

Bill.com, Expert Certification

Sigma Beta Delta International Honor Society, Member

COMMUNITY

Lumsden McCormick Making A Difference (MAD) Committee, Member

Meals on Wheels, Volunteer

United Way of Buffalo and Erie County Board Leadership Training