

Emily Isaacson

Manager

eisaacson@LumsdenCPA.com

Emily works as a manager in the tax department serving individuals and commercial businesses. Emily joined the Lumsden McCormick team in late 2021 with 7 years of experience which began in Kansas City, Missouri. While in KC, Emily spent her time focusing on clients in the construction & professional services industries. Since joining the Lumsden team over a year ago, she has continued to expand her knowledge and experience in pass-through entity & multi-state taxation, advising on both company operations and individual level compliance and planning.

EDUCATION

University of Missouri-Kansas City, Bachelor of Science, Accounting