

Amanda is a tax manager responsible for tax compliance services to businesses and individuals with a concentration in multistate and international taxation. She places emphasis on special projects relating to off-shore voluntary disclosures, controlled foreign corporations, and passive foreign investment companies. After an internship with Lumsden McCormick in 2011, Amanda joined the staff full time in 2012.

EDUCATION

Daemen College, Master of Science, Professional Accountancy
Daemen College, Bachelor of Science, Professional Accountancy

PROFESSIONAL

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants

COMMUNITY

Amherst Youth Foundation, Vice President, Board of Directors