

Megan is a principal in the tax department working with both businesses and individuals and has been with the firm since 2014. Her focus is on commercial entities, including S Corporations, C Corporations, and partnerships. She also works on manufacturers, consolidated groups, technology, and service companies. Additionally, Megan is a co-chair of the firm’s Research and Development tax credit department and has experience with credits and incentives for start-ups and commercial businesses.

EDUCATION

Indiana University of Pennsylvania (IUP), Bachelor of Science, Accounting and Criminology

PROFESSIONAL

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants

COMMUNITY

Lumsden McCormick Making A Difference (MAD) Committee, Member
Leadership Buffalo, 2024 Class Chair – Rising Leaders
Working For Downtown, Former Treasurer
Buffalo Triathlon Club, Member