

Amanda joined the Firm with over twelve years of accounting experience. Her expertise includes business and international tax consulting, along with compliance for high net wealth individuals. Her experience spans various industries including investment and manufacturing sectors, privately held companies, and international corporations.

EDUCATION

St. Bonaventure University, Master of Arts, Strategic Leadership

State University of New York at Fredonia, Bachelor of Science, Accounting and Psychology

PROFESSIONAL

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants

New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants

COMMUNITY

National Academy Foundation, Lake Shore High School Advisory, Board Member